

BOK Financial Securities adds new depth to institutional advisors team in Texas

TULSA, Okla. – November 12, 2019 – BOK Financial Securities, Inc., a subsidiary of BOK Financial (NASDAQ: BOKF), welcomes Reed Bateman to its Institutional Advisor team located in Dallas, TX. With more than 14 years of experience with a wide range of investment consulting and balance sheet management solutions, Bateman will help expand the organization’s service capabilities for financial institutions.

“We are proud of BOK Financial’s long-standing commitment to Texas, and are excited to be expanding our Institutional Advisor team to better serve financial institutions in Texas and throughout the Southwest,” said Nick Polyak, senior vice president, regional sales manager for BOK Financial Securities. “Reed will play a key role in improving our advisory client service to financial institutions.”

Before joining BOK Financial Securities, Bateman served as vice president for TIB The Independent BankersBank, N.A. where he specialized in fixed income sales and trading and balance sheet and interest rate risk consulting for community bank clients. Bateman is a graduate of Southern Methodist University in Dallas, TX.
